HOLIDAY CARDS of Appreciation

HOW IT WORKS

- Ask each student and staff to make a Holiday Card of Appreciation with a sentiment of appreciation for any organization or person that they think makes their community a better place to live.
- You may want to narrow down the organizations by asking the G-Force to identify a few organizations in your community that are making a difference.
  - Ideas: food bank, pet shelter, homeless, women's shelter, mayor, police, firemen, newspaper, etc.
- Cards can be collected in a box.
- Then the G-Force divides the cards into large envelopes and delivers/sends them to the organizations honored.

BUDGET CONSIDERATION

- Supplies for cards and postage to send them.

TASKS

1 - SUPPLIES NEEDED:

2 - SET UP A COLLECTION BOX:

HOLIDAY CARDS of Appreciation

Student 1: Hey [Student 2], what are you doing for the holidays?

Student 2: Probably eating way too many cookies. Why?

Student 1: Well, what if I told you we could spread some holiday cheer right here at school?

Student 2: Cheer... at school? How?

Student 1: By making Holiday Cards of Appreciation!

Student 2: That sounds cool, but who do I make one for?

Student 1: Anyone who makes our community a better place!

It could be a local business, a teacher, or even a neighbor who always helps out.

Student 2: Oh, I love that! I'm going to make one for the organization doing the toy drive (or food drive).

Student 1: Exactly! So, get creative and make a card to say thanks to someone special.

Student 2: I'm totally on it! And maybe I'll sneak in some cookies for them too.

Student 1: Let's spread the holiday cheer with handmade Cards of Appreciation (and maybe some cookies).

Student 2: So make your card and pop it into the box for delivery. Or you can deliver it yourself!
