

Spring Sticker Day

I'm grateful for Mrs. Smith for being so patient with me while I learn to play the piano!

STUDENTS & STAFF: Hand out stickers along with why you appreciate that person. (Look for someone who doesn't have one yet.) When you get a sticker, wear it proudly on your shirt all day!

STEP BY STEP

HOW IT WORKS

- Select One day this month to be Spring Sticker Day
- Use the suggested design for the stickers or make your own.
- Have enough stickers printed for each student and staff member to have 3-5
- Let each student and staff member hand out stickers to students and staff who they appreciate, and accompany the sticker with a reason why they are grateful for that person.
- Look for students that don't have a sticker yet. You may have to go outside your close circle to appreciate someone who wouldn't expect it!

Student 1: It's easy! On Spring Sticker Day, students and staff will get stickers to pass out to people at school, to show appreciation.

Student 2: And when you give a sticker, don't forget to say why you're grateful for that person!

Student 1: Nice! So, I can thank my friend for always helping me with homework.

Student 2: Or even give one to a teacher for making class fun!

Student 1: Exactly! But here's the best part—don't just give stickers to your close friends.

Student 2: It's nice to include those who don't have a sticker yet and let them know they're appreciated too.

Student 1: Once you get a sticker, wear it proudly on your shirt all day!

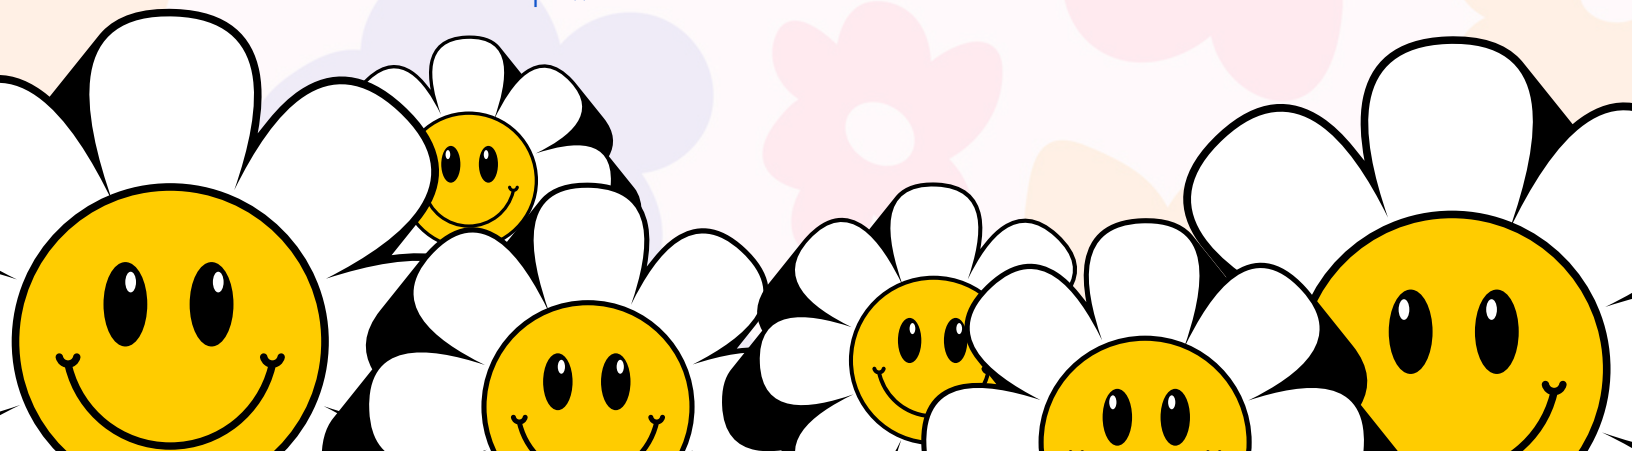

Student 2: This is going to be so cool! Let's fill the school with stickers and gratitude!
